Dear Mr. and Mrs. Morton:

I have sent the 50 slides under separate cover today. I am enclosing a little description of each slide. After you view them you may have questions which I shall be glad to answer. I have arranged them in a sequence starting with winter followed by the spring order of bloom and on into fall color. The red numbers are for the purpose of keeping them in this sequence if you care to. Many people like to finish with a sunset or an especially good picture. Either #49 or #50 would be good final pictures.

I'm sure your talk will be a success and I wish I could be there to sit in on it.

If there is anything more I can do please let me know.

Sincerely,

C. E. Godshalk
