My dear Mr. Godshalk:

Herewith find copy of a letter from Mr. L. R.
Steere of The University of Chicago, dated October 21, with regard to communicating with Mr. Moulds when the plot of ground is ready for them.

Copy of this letter was given Mr. Morton to take to you on October 23, but it seems he has mislaid it somewhere, so has asked that we send you another copy.

Yours truly,
