

Centennial Image Bank

COLLECTION, 1.13540

---

Collection Contents

Centennial Image Bank (132 records)

Administration and Research Center, Spring
Administration Building, front entrance and drive
Research Wing, Rotunda, and Library, view of patio from lawn
Aerial view of South Farm, Administration Building, and Visitor Center in winter
Aerial view of entire East Side in winter
Aerial view of entire West Side in winter
Aerial view of South Farm in winter
Aerial view of Visitor Center & Main Parking Lot in winter
Aerial view of Visitor Center area
Arbor Lake excavation looking southwest
Distant view of Arbor Lake under construction
Carl Morton sitting on porch in front of Arbor Lodge house
Arbor Lodge, Morton family sitting on porch and standing by drive
Arbor Lodge
Remodeling complete on four older homes moved to Arbordale
Clarence Godshalk's second Arboretum house, exterior front view with dog in lawn near walkway
Four people standing on Big Rock
Arboretum employees planting trees on berm with Crabapple Lake in background
Cudahy Auditorium, podium centered on stage
Adult Education, Wellness and Green Living, Fermented Foods Series: Dairy-Free Yogurt
Lisle Farms registered Holstein cattle in and around a section of the DuPage River after it was straightened in 1921
Founder's Room historic windows bay
Suzette Morton Davidson standing with the 4 columns in her apartment on Astor St.
Pillars view
John Kohout seated on bench in Fragrance Garden
Adult Education, Socially Distanced Learning, Wild and Wonderful Edible Weeds
Margaret and Clarence Godshalk with Suzette Morton Davidson at entrance to Godshalk Hall
East view, Arboretum Hedge Garden
View of Hedge Garden before pillars
The Hedge Garden & collection of old fashioned roses
Hedge Garden at The Morton Arboretum
Herbarium, two men viewing specimens from cabinet
East/West Tollway construction near The Morton Arboretum, aerial view
Route 53 looking north from tollway
Joy Morton on Joy Path
Footbridge over inlet to Lake Jopamaca
Lake Jopamaca in summer looking west
Round Meadow: men, mules & machines
Lake Marmo looking north
Redbuds (Cercis canadensis) near Lake Marmo at The Morton Arboretum
Vegetation in and along edge of Lake Marmo looking south to bridge and dam
Bridge at southeast side of Lake Marmo
May T. Watts Reading Garden, view looking southwest
May T. Watts Reading Garden, Suzette Morton Zurcher seated near fountain
Meadow Lake looking east
Joy Morton burial plot with flowers and wreaths
Morton Salt Company Building
Adult Education, Wellness and Green Living, Weekend Wellness Retreat
May T. Watts and class at the Arboretum, luncheon
Ed Hedborn assisting visitors at Plant Clinic desk
Arbordale Greenhouses
Research Building dedication - Firefly Pond, Research Building, and Greenhouse
Fagus sylvatica L. (European beech), growth habit, tree form, winter profile, Research Building in background
Ray Schulenberg planting plugs in the prairie
South Farm barn

Sterling Morton Library, reading room, panorama looking west at couple exiting library
Sterling Morton Library, Reading Room entrance
Sterling Morton Library Special Collections in new climate-controlled vault
Morton stone cottage on residence grounds in winter
Thornhill Conference Center north entrance and walkway through spruce trees, soon after completion
Thornhill Education Center, spring
Looking north toward Thornhill residence, view from lower pond
Side View Across Lawn To Thornhill Residence
Aerial view of Thornhill Residence and surrounding land
Aerial view of entire Morton Farm and estate (relay tower in distance)
Morton Residence at Thornhill, library
Visitor Center and Restaurant, facing Meadow Lake
Meadow Lake and Visitor Center
Volunteers at work in the prairie, laying stones for path
George Ware with grafted young elms in quonset hut
Ray Schulenberg with prairie sign in the Schulenberg Prairie
Dr. Gerard Donnelly, headshot
Charles Haffner III speaking at podium for the signing of agreement with Tollway Authority and DuPage County Forest Preserve
Dr. Marion T. Hall
Marion T. Hall at his desk
Clarence E. Godshalk, Director of The Morton Arboretum, 1934 to 1966
Clarence E. Godshalk in runabout made from Model T car
O.C. Simonds & Joy Morton at Arnold Arboretum
Charles Hutchinson, Joy Morton, Dr. Charles Sprague Sargent at Thornhill
Margaret Gray Morton, photograph of painted portrait
Suzette Morton Davidson at her apartment on Astor St.
Joseph M. Cudahy, husband of Jean Morton Cudahy
Sterling Morton, formal portrait
Jean Morton Cudahy with dog
Joy & Carrie Morton with their children, Jean & Sterling
Carrie Lake, side view
Caroline Joy Morton, wife of J. Sterling Morton
Joy Morton, formal portrait
Joy Morton @ 60 years
Joy Morton at his office at Morton Salt Company
Four generations of Morton men
May Watts instructing class in Thornhill classroom
May T. Watts teaching an art class at The Morton Arboretum
Woman with two children looking at plants in Arbor Week surplus plant sale tent
Boy shoveling mulch over tree with other children behind at Arbor Day tree planting near Hedge Garden
Indenture, The Morton Arboretum
Joy Morton posed with shovel at Dawes Arboretum American Elm Tree Dedication to his father
2020 Tree Census field crew taking measurements in plot 1094
2020 Tree Census field crew taking measurements in plot 4180
The Red List of US Oaks
Nature Connects, thumbnail
Nature Connects: Grandfather and Granddaughter next to Wheelbarrow thumbnail
Meadow Lake, "How Far Have We Gone" art installation
Patrick Dougherty Sculpture "Xanadu," winter
Staff from The Morton Arboretum measuring street trees for the tree census
Rendering of central area
ACCOLADE® elm (Ulmus davidiana var. japonica 'Morton') near the Thornhill Education Center at The Morton Arboretum
Joseph Rothleutner performing controlled crosses on buckeye (Aesculus) trees
Looking out from Acorn Express Tram
May T. Watts and class at the Arboretum, riding in an open-air tram
National Trails Symposium, May Watts, U.S. Secretary of the Interior Rogers Morton, and others cutting a ribbon
Ginkgo biloba 'Princeton Gold' PP2675 (PRINCETON GOLD® Ginkgo), leaf, upper surface
Ginkgo biloba 'PNI 2720' PP2726 (PRINCETON SENTRY® Ginkgo), leaf, fall
Ginkgo biloba (ginkgo), hanging twigs with leaves
Joy Morton with his brothers and father
ArbNet Brochure
Growing Brilliantly Charitable Gift Annuity Card
InTREEguing TreeHouses Exhibit Map
Big Bugs Exhibition Activity Brochure

Animal Houses Exhibition Adventure Guide
 Steelroots Exhibition Brochure
 Nature Connects Exhibition Map, Guide, and Activities
 Ribbit! The Exhibit Map, Guide and Activities
 Origami in the Garden Brochure
 Troll Hunt Guide and Map
 Tree Finder: A Pocket Manual for Identification of Trees By Their Leaves
 Flower Finder: a guide to identification of Spring Wild Flowers and Flower Families
 Reading the Landscape Book Cover
 Reading the Landscape of Europe Book Cover
 Reading the Landscape of America Book Cover
 The Champion of Trees Brochure
 Joy Morton posed with an American Elm dedicated to his father at Dawes Arboretum

Centennial Image Bank: Places (68 records)

Pillars view
 The Hedge Garden & collection of old fashioned roses
 View of Hedge Garden before pillars
 East view, Arboretum Hedge Garden
 Round Meadow: men, mules & machines
 Looking north toward Thornhill residence, view from lower pond
 Lake Marmo looking north
 South Farm barn
 Side View Across Lawn To Thornhill Residence
 Morton Salt Company Building
 Margaret and Clarence Godshalk with Suzette Morton Davidson at entrance to Godshalk Hall
 Aerial view of entire Morton Farm and estate (relay tower in distance)
 Aerial view of South Farm, Administration Building, and Visitor Center in winter
 Aerial view of entire East Side in winter
 Aerial view of entire West Side in winter
 Aerial view of South Farm in winter
 Aerial view of Visitor Center & Main Parking Lot in winter
 Carl Morton sitting on porch in front of Arbor Lodge house
 Arbor Lodge, Morton family sitting on porch and standing by drive
 Arbor Lodge
 Sterling Morton Library, reading room, panorama looking west at couple exiting library
 May T. Watts Reading Garden, view looking southwest
 May T. Watts Reading Garden, Suzette Morton Zurcher seated near fountain
 Research Wing, Rotunda, and Library, view of patio from lawn
 Herbarium, two men viewing specimens from cabinet
 Cudahy Auditorium, podium centered on stage
 Visitor Center and Restaurant, facing Meadow Lake
 Founder's Room historic windows bay
 Morton Residence at Thornhill, library
 Joy Morton burial plot with flowers and wreaths
 Ray Schulenberg planting plugs in the prairie
 Four people standing on Big Rock
 Aerial view of Thornhill Residence and surrounding land
 Aerial view of Visitor Center area
 Suzette Morton Davidson standing with the 4 columns in her apartment on Astor St.
 Administration Building, front entrance and drive
 Joy Morton on Joy Path
 Sterling Morton Library, Reading Room entrance
 Ed Hedborn assisting visitors at Plant Clinic desk
 Research Building dedication - Firefly Pond, Research Building, and Greenhouse
 John Kohout seated on bench in Fragrance Garden
 Distant view of Arbor Lake under construction
 Lisle Farms registered Holstein cattle in and around a section of the DuPage River after it was straightened in 1921
 Route 53 looking north from tollway
 Footbridge over inlet to Lake Jopamaca
 May T. Watts and class at the Arboretum, luncheon
 Lake Jopamaca in summer looking west
 Vegetation in and along edge of Lake Marmo looking south to bridge and dam
 Clarence Godshalk's second Arboretum house, exterior front view with dog in lawn near walkway

Redbuds (Cercis canadensis) near Lake Marmo at The Morton Arboretum
Thornhill Conference Center north entrance and walkway through spruce trees, soon after completion
Hedge Garden at The Morton Arboretum
Remodeling complete on four older homes moved to Arbordale
Sterling Morton Library Special Collections in new climate-controlled vault
Arbor Lake excavation looking southwest
Meadow Lake looking east
Morton stone cottage on residence grounds in winter
East/West Tollway construction near The Morton Arboretum, aerial view
Arboretum employees planting trees on berm with Crabapple Lake in background
Arbordale Greenhouses
Fagus sylvatica L. (European beech), growth habit, tree form, winter profile, Research Building in background
Bridge at southeast side of Lake Marmo
Meadow Lake and Visitor Center
Administration and Research Center, Spring
Thornhill Education Center, spring
Adult Education, Socially Distanced Learning, Wild and Wonderful Edible Weeds
Adult Education, Wellness and Green Living, Weekend Wellness Retreat
Adult Education, Wellness and Green Living, Fermented Foods Series: Dairy-Free Yogurt

Centennial Image Bank: People (25 records)

Volunteers at work in the prairie, laying stones for path
George Ware with grafted young elms in quonset hut
Ray Schulenberg with prairie sign in the Schulenberg Prairie
Dr. Gerard Donnelly, headshot
Charles Haffner III speaking at podium for the signing of agreement with Tollway Authority and DuPage County Forest Preserve
Dr. Marion T. Hall
Marion T. Hall at his desk
Clarence E. Godshalk, Director of The Morton Arboretum, 1934 to 1966
Clarence E. Godshalk in runabout made from Model T car
O.C. Simonds & Joy Morton at Arnold Arboretum
Charles Hutchinson, Joy Morton, Dr. Charles Sprague Sargent at Thornhill
Margaret Gray Morton, photograph of painted portrait
Suzette Morton Davidson at her apartment on Astor St.
Joseph M. Cudahy, husband of Jean Morton Cudahy
Sterling Morton, formal portrait
Jean Morton Cudahy with dog
Joy & Carrie Morton with their children, Jean & Sterling
Carrie Lake, side view
Caroline Joy Morton, wife of J. Sterling Morton
Joy Morton, formal portrait
Joy Morton @ 60 years
Joy Morton at his office at Morton Salt Company
Four generations of Morton men
Joy Morton with his brothers and father
Joy Morton posed with an American Elm dedicated to his father at Dawes Arboretum

Centennial Image Bank: Events (6 records)

May Watts instructing class in Thornhill classroom
May T. Watts teaching an art class at The Morton Arboretum
Woman with two children looking at plants in Arbor Week surplus plant sale tent
Boy shoveling mulch over tree with other children behind at Arbor Day tree planting near Hedge Garden
Indenture, The Morton Arboretum
Joy Morton posed with shovel at Dawes Arboretum American Elm Tree Dedication to his father

Centennial Image Bank: Programs (24 records)

2020 Tree Census field crew taking measurements in plot 1094
2020 Tree Census field crew taking measurements in plot 4180
The Red List of US Oaks
Nature Connects, thumbnail
Nature Connects: Grandfather and Granddaughter next to Wheelbarrow thumbnail
Meadow Lake, "How Far Have We Gone" art installation
Patrick Dougherty Sculpture "Xanadu," winter

Staff from The Morton Arboretum measuring street trees for the tree census
Rendering of central area
ACCOLADE® elm (Ulmus davidiana var. japonica 'Morton') near the Thornhill Education Center at The Morton Arboretum
George Ware with grafted young elms in quonset hut
Joseph Rothleutner performing controlled crosses on buckeye (Aesculus) trees
Looking out from Acorn Express Tram
May T. Watts and class at the Arboretum, riding in an open-air tram
ArbNet Brochure
Growing Brilliantly Charitable Gift Annuity Card
InTREEguing TreeHouses Exhibit Map
Big Bugs Exhibition Activity Brochure
Animal Houses Exhibition Adventure Guide
Steelroots Exhibition Brochure
Nature Connects Exhibition Map, Guide, and Activities
Ribbit! The Exhibit Map, Guide and Activities
Origami in the Garden Brochure
Troll Hunt Guide and Map

Centennial Image Bank: Other (10 records)

National Trails Symposium, May Watts, U.S. Secretary of the Interior Rogers Morton, and others cutting a ribbon
Ginkgo biloba 'Princeton Gold' PP2675 (PRINCETON GOLD® Ginkgo), leaf, upper surface
Ginkgo biloba 'PNI 2720' PP2726 (PRINCETON SENTRY® Ginkgo), leaf, fall
Ginkgo biloba (ginkgo), hanging twigs with leaves
Tree Finder: A Pocket Manual for Identification of Trees By Their Leaves
Flower Finder: a guide to identification of Spring Wild Flowers and Flower Families
Reading the Landscape Book Cover
Reading the Landscape of Europe Book Cover
Reading the Landscape of America Book Cover
The Champion of Trees Brochure